

Potato Cakes

Mom always used up the leftover mashed potatoes for these. So good. Serves 6

2 c mashed potatoes

1 egg white, slightly beaten

2 tbs. chopped onion

2 tbs. all purpose flour

dash of salt pepper to taste

1 tsp. oil

In a medium size bowl, combine potatoes, egg white, onion, flour, salt and pepper. Meanwhile, heat oil in a large skillet over medium high heat. When hot, put about 2 tablespoons potato mixture for each cake into skillet. Cook until well browned, then turn with a spatula and cook other side until brown. Continue making cakes, keeping first ones warm.
